The church building fund was increased $392.64 during the year, making Room ?

total of $2400.22 for this purpose Considerable repairs and improvements were completed at the parsonage, amounting to $894.83 of which $100 was paid off. The Sunday School treasures has a balance of $17.75. The Young People's Society a balance of $12.80; and the Young Men's Christian Association $6.68. For mission work $893.07 was ollected and disbursed.

Trustee Charles L. Seibert brought up the question of a new church, which created considerable discussion. He said the Sunday School room was not in condition for the teachers and scholars. The church was too small for the congregation and provisions should be made at once for the increasing membership. Frank G. Tower played a friendly game Trustees, Theodore Mix, Henry Meuser and the latter made the high scores of 196, 227 and 143. F. L. Snedeker is second with and Geo. W. Fornoff, Sr., also spoke in every weave. favor of building a new church. There was some opposition to the project from Jacob Fornoff and Henry Bickler, who were of the opinion that the present edifice was large enough to accommodate the Germans of this vicinity.
